MANUSCRIPT FORMAT

Manuscripts submitted to Jurnal Hukum Islam Azzahro must follow the formatting guidelines described below to ensure consistency and readability of published articles.

The manuscript must be written using Book Antiqua font with a size of 12 pt for the main text. The abstract must use Book Antiqua font size 10 pt. All text should use single line spacing.

The manuscript should be prepared using A4 paper size with the following margin settings:

Top margin: 2.5 cm

Bottom margin: 2.5 cm

Right margin: 2.5 cm

The manuscript should contain between 6000 and 8000 words, excluding references. The recommended length of the article is between 15 and 20 pages.

All paragraphs should be written in justified alignment with a first-line indentation of 1 cm. There should be no extra spacing between paragraphs.

Headings should be written in bold using Book Antiqua font size 12 pt. Subheadings may be written in bold without numbering.

Authors must ensure that the manuscript follows the structure required by the journal, including Title, Author Information, Abstract, Keywords, Introduction, Research Method, Results, Discussion, Conclusion, Acknowledgment, and References.

TABLES AND FIGURES

Tables and figures must be clearly numbered and referred to in the text.

Example:

Table 1. Distribution of Research Data

Example:

Tables should use horizontal lines only and avoid vertical lines.

CITATION STYLE (APA 7th EDITION)

All citations in the manuscript must follow the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition style. Authors are strongly encouraged to use reference management software such as Mendeley, Zotero, or EndNote in order to ensure consistency in citation and reference formatting.

In-text citations should include the author's last name and the year of publication. Page numbers should be included when quoting directly from a source.

Examples of in-text citation formats are provided below:

Single author

Example: Islamic legal reform continues to evolve in response to modern societal changes (Azra, 2019).

Two authors

Example: Islamic jurisprudence has developed through continuous scholarly interpretation (Hefner & Nasution, 2020).

Three or more authors

Example: Contemporary Islamic legal scholarship increasingly emphasizes maqashid al-sharia as a methodological framework (Hefner et al., 2021).

Narrative citation

Example: Azra (2019) argues that Islamic legal thought must adapt to changing social contexts.

Direct quotation

If quoting directly from a source, the page number must be included.

Example: According to Azra (2019, p. 12), Islamic law must be interpreted in accordance with its broader ethical objectives.

Multiple sources

Example: Several studies have emphasized the importance of maqashid al-sharia in contemporary Islamic legal discourse (Azra, 2019; Hefner, 2018; Kamali, 2020).

Authors must ensure that all sources cited in the text are included in the reference list, and all references listed must be cited in the text.

MANUSCRIPT LENGTH

The manuscript submitted to Jurnal Hukum Islam Azzahro must meet the following length requirements in order to maintain the academic quality and consistency of the journal.

The total length of the manuscript should be between 6000 and 8000 words, excluding the reference list. This word count includes the abstract, introduction, research method, results, discussion, conclusion, tables, and figures.

The recommended length of the article is between 15 and 20 pages using A4 paper size with the margin settings specified in the manuscript format guidelines.

Authors are expected to present their research in a clear, concise, and well-structured manner. Manuscripts that are significantly shorter or longer than the recommended length may be returned to the authors for revision before entering the review process.

Authors should ensure that each section of the article is proportionally balanced. As a general guideline, the Introduction should contain approximately 900–1200 words, the Research Method 500–700 words, the Results 1000–1500 words, the Discussion 1000–1500 words, and the Conclusion 300–400 words.

INTRODUCTION (900–1200 words)

The introduction should present the research background and the significance of the research problem within the broader context of Islamic legal studies. Authors should discuss relevant previous studies in order to identify research gaps and demonstrate the novelty of the current research.

The final part of the introduction should clearly present the research objectives and research questions.
